SILLIMAN CASE NOT TO BE TRIED THIS TIME.

Jones Embezzlement Case Put Over Until Next Wednesday-Albert Buchta on Trial on a Charge of Selling Liquor Without a License. Three Boys Plead Guilty to Larceny and as It Was Their First Offense Sentence Was Suspended by Judge Kelly.

The trial of cases by juries for this veek's term of criminal court was oncluded yesterday and this morning he surety and desertion list will be taken up and disposed of by the judges vithout the assistance of juries. Durug the week considerable progress was made with the list notwithstanding that much time was taken up by the Tomashifski murder case and the Hatton perjury case, Another important case on the lis was the bribery case against Frank Silliman, jr., in which William Repp of Old Forge is the prosecutor. It was continued until the next term. The ease of O. E. Jones, charged with embezzlement by G. A. Doance, is also in the list for this week but was contin ied until next Wednesday. An echo of the reign of Colonel F. I. Hitchcock as director of the depart nent of public safety of the city, and also of the John Miskus murder a Lloyd street on March 17, 1896, was vafted into criminal court. Albert Buchta, the "king of Lloyd street," vas the cause of the wafting.

Buchta is a portly man with long flowing side whiskers of iron grey, and is quite an imposing figure. He has been for many years a moving spirit among the natives of Poland, who live in Lloyd street, and has been a mar of some influence with them. Since taking up his residence at Lloyd street he has always had something to de with the sale of liquor and has on several occasions been indicted for selling without a license and sustained one conviction, for which he served a tern in the county jail. Selling liquor is not the only offence he has been charged with.

CAUSE OF TROUBLE.

Some time after being convicted, he secured a license, but did not have it renewed last April. That's where he eft himself open for trouble. Buchta was one of the men instru mental in trying to fasten the killing of John Miskus on Simon Narushas, and the latter did not forget that fact. He went to see Director of Public Safety Hitchcock and offered to assist in seuring evidence against Buchta.

Simon furnished money to John Kaditz to buy beer from Buchta, after the latter's license had expired, and Koditz vesterday testified that he got the beer, paid for and drank it. Arthur Keene and James Reid, agents of the director, went to Buchta's place, taking Roy Keene, a boy, with them. The latter was sent into Buchta's place and bought five bottles of beer. Buchta denied making the sales in question. After his license ran out, he retired from the retail drink business but continued to run a store. He entered into an agreement with the Columbia Bottling company, of Priceburg, by which he handled that company He sold nothing less than goods. dozen bottles to anyone. One of the bottles of beer purchased from Bucht: was produced in court, and the bottle was found to have Buchta's name blown in the side of it. He explained this by saying that he intended to go lark, G. E. Dem, Hughes, dentist, services in into the bottling business and had a their several lines: Eackawanna Dairy Co., milk number of bottles made, but finally daily; Abington Dairy Co., milk daily. abandoned the idea and turned the

A verdiet of not guilty was taken in the case of Druotto Donzello, charged with carrying concealed weapons, the prosecutor, Lorenzo Simenzo, not appearing. A similar verdict was taker it the case of Frank Urbanowicz charged with committing an assault and battery on Martin Rudnitski. The parties agreed to a settlement, and the verdict was the result.

Max Phillips did not appear to prose cute Charles Hamm, and a verdict of not guilty was taken. The charge was assault and battery. Verdicts of not guilty, taken in other cases in which the prosecutors did not appear, were; William Gordon, assault and battery; Pittaton Circle, Mrs. W. G. Thomas, rowellag:

Daniel Evans, aged 16: George Foust. aged 16, and Paul Korniski, aged 14. were arraigned before Judge Kelly yesterday, charged with stealing brass stair rods from the Westminster hotel on September 15, last. On account of their youth and it being their first offense, the judge suspended sentence.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGED. Anthony Michinicki was tried on a charge of embezzling $196.50 of the funds of the Bartel Brewing company, of Edwardsdale. He was employed as an agent and collector. He declared that he never took any of the money of the company and that the alleged shortage was nothing more than mistakes in the bookkeeping of the Bartel company. The jury was out wrestling with the case at adjourning hour. Michael Burke, of Peckville, was tried on a charge of assaulting E. M. Dobson, a conductor of the Scranton Railway company, and Mrs. Ann No-yack, on August 15, near Peckville. Conductor Dobson died two weeks ago. Barke was alleged to be disobeying the rules of the company and was ejected from the car. He took the top off his dinner pail and threw it at the conductor, but it missed him and struck Mrs. Novack, a passenger. The jury came in just before adjournment and reported that it could not agree. Judge

Kelly sent it out to make a further effort John Miles, colored, who lives at Riverside near Archbald, was charged by his white wife, Mame Miles, with beating her, drawing the back of a razor across her neck several times and then slashing her on the breast and under the arm with a razor or July 22 last, at their home. He de nied the charge and said that his wifsustained the cut on the breast and under the arm while cutting a loaf of bread with a sharp knife. She was holding the loof against her breast with her arm at the time. The jury returned Miles not guilty. Andrew Bochinski and Miss Tekla Sarofin lived at Mayfield and were engaged to be married. The bride-to-be gave $25 to the prospective groom to pay some of the expenses of the event When on the stand yesterday the young woman said that one night Bochinskie dragged her into a room threw her on a bed and tried to assault her. She thereupon broke off the engagement and had Bochinskie arrested for assault and battery.

The defendant's story is somewhat different. He says he was engaged to marry Miss Sarofin and that she gave him $25. Later she decided to marry another man and had her former lover arrested and taken before Justice of the Peace Mendelssohn, of Mayfield to recover the $25. He declares that nothing was said about assault and battery then and that he did not know he was so accused until he came into court. A verdict had not been reached at adjournment.

Edward Vicary was tried for the theft of brass journals from Delaware and Hudson cars in the Green Ridge yard. The brass was taken to the Green Ridge Iron works and cut up into small pieces by the shears used for cutting scrap. An effort was made to sell the brass to Junkman Zieman by Paul Goldie. Zieman notified the police and Goldie was arrested, but subsequently released under the belief that Vicary was the real thief and had induced Goldie to sell it for him. Vicary denied the theft and tried to place the responsibility for it on Goldle, He was defended by Attorney M. J. Walsh.

The jury was out at adjourning hour. Michael Sharack, of Mayfield, who on Thursday was tried for selling liquor without a license in Archbald was yesterday found guilty.

The trial of Thomas Burke, charged with being the father of the child of Lena Hartman, was concluded yesterday. He was convicted of unlawful relations only.

The case of Charles Tugend, charged with assault and battery by Elizabeth Pinder, was reported as settled and a erdict of not guilty was taken. Verdicts of not guilty were taken in the cases of C. J. Potter, charged with larceny and receiving, and M. J. Crane, charged with malicious mis-The prosecutor in each case was the late Attorney C. Smith. Charles D. Raver, charged with as saulting John F. Raver, was returned not guilty, the parties having settled

SUBSTANTIAL MEN AS JURORS

NAMES OF A NUMBER OF THEM TAKEN FROM WHEEL.

First Drawing from the Box Filled by Judge H. M. Edwards and Commissioners E. B. Sturges and D. J. Campbell-The Jurors Will Serve on the Grand Jury in January and at the Term of Quarter Sessions Court Which Begins on Monday, J

Jury Commissioners E. B. Sturges and D. J. Campbell and Sheriff C. H. Schadt yesterday drew the first names from the jury wheel for 1902. They took from the wheel the names of the who will serve as grand jurors beginning Monday, Jan. 6, and as petit jarors during the weeks beginning Feb.

In accordance with the order recently handed down by Judge H. M. Edwards 80 petit jurors were drawn for each week instead of 60 as heretofore. This will do away with calling tales men at each term of criminal court, The difference in the character of the men whose names are in the wheel this year is shown by those taken from the wheel yesterday. The list contains a good sprinkling of the most substan tial citizens of the county. The list in its entirety follows:
